Vocabulary words for: The Enormous Turnip granddaughter, planted, grew, strong, enormous, turnip

Here are Mrs. Smith and her granddaughter, Millie. They live next door to me.

Mrs. Smith has an enormous garden that covers almost her whole backyard. Last year, she grew vegetables, such as beans and carrots. She also planted many flowers in the soil.

Millie waters the garden and picks the vegetables. Mrs. Smith pulls weeds. She is strong enough to pull weeds out of the ground by herself.

The other day, Mrs. Smith brought my family tomatoes, beans, and one giant turnip. I like living next door to Mrs. Smith. (91 Words)

I like helping Grandma in her garden. I like it when she says, "Good job, Granddaughter."

Once we planted an apple tree. The tree grew fast. Its branches were thin, but they were strong. Soon I saw big, red apples in the tree.

Another time I helped Grandma dig up something really big.

It was enormous. I asked Grandma if it was a potato. She told me it was a turnip. (71 Words)
