

Name: _____ "Wilson Sat Alone"

Grammar Test - Skill - Telling Parts of a Sentence

Skill Reminder:

1. A sentence has a telling part. It tells what someone or something is or does.
2. Telling parts can tell about two things that someone or something is or does. The word and is used to join them.

Directions: Underline the telling part of each sentence.

Example: Zookeepers feed the animals.

1. We went to the zoo on Friday.
2. My sister wanted to see the polar bears.
3. The baby bear jumped up and down.
4. Many small children laughed.
5. A big polar bear was sleeping.
6. I like him best.

Directions for problems 7 -10:

Match the naming parts with the telling parts by writing the letter on the line.

NAMING PARTS

7. CATS _____
8. BEES _____
9. SEALS _____
10. TIGERS _____

TELLING PARTS

- a. bark and swim.
- b. run and roar.
- c. buzz and fly.
- d. nap and purr.