1. Picture walk to page 144.

GPS: ELA2R4b Make predictions from text

Focus: Predict what you think the story is about.

Respond:

____________________
____________________
____________________
____________________
____________________

2. Page 130-131

GPS: ELA2R4b Make predictions from text

Focus: What do you think the children will do after lunch?

Respond:

____________________
____________________
____________________
____________________
____________________

3. Page 134-135

GPS: ELA2R4h Makes connections between personal experiences

Focus: What would you say to Wilson?

Respond:

____________________
____________________
____________________
____________________
____________________

ELA2R4b

Make predictions from text

ELA2R4h

Makes connections between personal experiences
Focus: How does it feel to be the new child in class?

ELA2R4h Makes connections between personal experiences

Focus: What parts of this story could be real?

ELA2R4f Determines fact from fiction

Respond:
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________

Respond:
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________

Respond:
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________

Name: __________________________
Date: __________________________